DETAILED ACTION

Claim Objections

Claim 1 is objected to because of the following informalities: It is noted that claims should be in one sentence form. It is noted that claim 1 includes more than one sentence. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. It is unclear if applicant intended to claim a combination including a an apparatus for attaching a book, a book , and a pad of paper since an apparatus is positively claimed with specific relationship and interconnection with a book and pad such pad and book not being positively claimed making the metes and bounds of the claims unclear and confusing to a potential infringer. Clarification and correction are required. Claim(s) 1 fail(s) to recite sufficient structural elements and interconnection of the elements to positively position and define ; 1) how the apparatus provides a platform for either right or left handed persons; 2) how the channel secures the back of a pad so that an integral structure able to function as claimed is recited. The expression "the cardboard back" has no definite antecedent basis in the claims.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claim 1 would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. The patents to Riebe, Voorhorst, Morin, Cooper et al, Jacobus, Randall, Ramundo, Scott, Tate teach structure similar to applicant's.
